"Your Child, My Child, Our Children"
Announcements & Reminders
October 19, 2007

1. Next week is parent/teacher conference week. If it is convenient for you, please bring your child. If not, that's okay too! Please plan on meeting with your child's math and science teacher(s) following your conference with me. Conferences are very tight this year with the number of kids we're meeting with, so please try to be on time and understand that we only have a limited amount of time to discuss your child. We can always schedule a follow up if you feel that not all of your questions have been answered or concerns addressed.
2. Please encourage your child to sell magazines! The money goes straight back to your child by providing uniforms, activities and assemblies.
3. We are working on summarizing fiction and nonfiction text in reading.
4. In writing, we are going to begin a narrative, instead of a choice writing piece. If you have the chance this weekend, please talk to your child about possible narrative topics. A narrative is a true story that your child writes about an experience they had. It could be an embarrassing story, a funny one, a sad experience— it must be one that is memorable in some way. We will begin planning and drafting our narrative next week.
5. We will not send Friday Folders home next week.
6. Look for a progress report in this week's Friday Folder.
7. No late start on Monday!

Have a wonderful weekend!
